

NOVALEE WILDER

PROFESSIONAL NUMEROLOGIST + AUTHOR

ABOUT

Novalee Wilder is a Danish actress and artist turned professional numerologist and writer living in Los Angeles. She is an alumna of the William Esper Studio, NYC, and a graduate of the Love Leader Re-formation by Avalon Khaan.

From twelve-step programs to internationally acclaimed professional training, Novalee has explored personal growth techniques and the keys to illuminating the human condition through all her work. Yet, the years of training pale in comparison to the life-altering experience of changing her name with the help of numerology. Blown away by the potency and accuracy of this ancient spiritual tool, she studied it for years and is now an expert within the field.

Novalee is the host of The Numerology Podcast, founder of The Numerology School and offers 1:1 sessions, training, and talks about the sacred science of numbers and letters.

As a podcast guest, Novalee can share on everything related to numerology and name change: Numerology 101 - What it is, how to work with it and what it reveals about you. Names and name changes - how a name change can change your life.

Novalee will promote the episode on all her social media channels, website and newsletter.
